COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons on the First Superseding Indictment to be imprisoned for a term of 4 months.. This term consists of 4 months on each of Counts 1 and 6, to be served concurrently. Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three years. This term consists of three years on each of Counts 1 and 6, all such terms to run concurrently and under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05;
2. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 318;

4. The defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, breath, and/or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abstain from using illicit drugs, and abusing alcohol or prescription medications during the period of supervision;
5. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs, and the defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer;
6. The Court authorizes the Probation Office to disclose the Presentence Report to the substance abuse treatment provider to facilitate the defendant's treatment for narcotic addiction or drug dependency. Further redisclosure of the Presentence Report by the treatment provider is prohibited without the consent of the sentencing judge;
7. The defendant shall reside for a period of four months in a community corrections center (community corrections component) as directed by the Probation Officer, and shall observe the rules of the facility;
8. The defendant shall arrange to transfer ownership and possession of all firearm within 10 days of this judgment being

9. The defendant shall provide an executed Declaration of Net Worth and Cash Flow Statement to the Probation Officer within 10 days of this judgment being entered;
10. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
11. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200, which is due immediately to the Clerk of the Court.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $157,250 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A.

Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, nominal monthly payments of at least $250 shall be made during the period of supervised release. These payments shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

The defendant shall be held jointly and severally liable with co-defendant Edward Reed, for the amount of restitution ordered in this judgment.

All fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine in addition to restitution.

The Court advised the defendant of the right to appeal this judgment.

SENTENCING FACTORS: The sentence is based upon the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3553, including the applicable sentencing range set forth in the guidelines.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
